Mermaid White Wines

Clean & Crisp

1. Garganega “Ancora” 2016 (Italy) ABV 13%

This dry white has aromas of golden delicious apples and sweet spice. The palate is clean and crisp, yet with texture and weight. Includes notes of apricot, flowers, ginger and honey with a lemony finish.

£19.80

11. Malvasia “Vina Kozlović”, Istria 2014 (Croatia) ABV 12%

A bright, transparently, green-yellow colour. Intense aroma with many layers. A profound scent of peach followed by refined herbal notes. On the palate, nectarine, melon and red apples. The finish gives way to a light nuttiness. The Kozlović family invite you to sample the fruits of their labour.

£32

5. Rey Santo Verdejo, Javier Sanz, Rueda 2015 (Spain)
ABV 13%

A clean, fresh, bright wine full of vibrant aromas of pineapple, kiwi, passionfruit combined with a wet stone mineral complexity. Rich and well-structured with a pure persistent finish.

£25

14. Grüner Veltliner "Langenlois", Weingut Rabl, Kamptal 2014 (Austria) 2015 ABV 12.5%

A spicy opening with yellow apple, wood apple, soft honeydew melon, a well-defined body with good fleshiness, juicy cascading acidity - a dynamic palate with a savoury peppery spicy finish.

£37

15. Gavi di Gavi, San Silvestro, "Fossili" (Italy) 2016 ABV 12.5%

A crisp wine which shows incredible minerality, zesty citrus and floral notes with a hint of spice and the typical touch of bitter almond that makes this wine unique. Prominent mineral characters with appealing green apple linger on the long and precise finish.

£40

Dry & Mineral

8. Picpoul de Pinet, "Tournée du Sud" 2015 (France)
ABV 12.5%

The literal translation of Picpoul is 'lip-stinger' because of its freshness. A Mediterranean white with all the salty, lemony, floral finesse of the zippy picpoul grape. Slightly steely and lemony on the nose with an unusual depth on the palate which finishes with a long refreshing taste which is fantastic with seafood.

£27

6. Pinot Grigio "Villa Molino" 2015 (Italy) ABV 12%

Straw yellow in colour with golden hues. A delicate bouquet on the nose with a stony palate. Fresh & well balanced with good acidity. A quality Pinot Grigio from its heartland in Veneto.

£28

13. Quincy, Beaucharme, "Domaine Sylvain Bailly" 2013 (France) ABV 12.5%

Sancerre's neighbour, same region, same soil but in our eyes - a superior quality wine! Hosting striking notes of green gooseberry, mineral elegance with lots of expansive length. For someone who enjoys Sancerre, we promise you will be pleasantly surprised! A wine coming from the second oldest appellation in France.

£48

17. Riesling, Setzberg Spitz Smaragd, Weingut Johann Donabaum, Wachau 2013 (Austria) ABV 13%

Ripe nectarine and yellow peach flavours with a balanced undertone of minerality & white pepper spice. Fine acidity & body, a very elegant and complex wine with a lovely whistle clean finish. A great Riesling expression.

Johann is carving out a formidable reputation for concentrated, mineral-laden white wines. His wines are always in high demand and despite this his prices remain competitive for their quality.

£82

16. Meursault 1er Cru "Les Charmes-Dessus" Vincent Girardin 2004/2005 (France) ABV 13.5%

The sixty-five-year-old vines are located in the village of Meursault, in the south of the Cote De Beaune on low slopes of clay and limestone offering a Southeast exposure. The Chardonnay grapes are harvested by hand and lightly pressed at a low pressure to allow a slow extraction. The wine is transferred to French oak casks to ferment with wild yeast for a minimum of 16 months. Honey and toasted bread aromas. Elegant and strong structure on the palate. This wine is made with care and a lot of pride and excels when matched with fish or poultry.

£120

Fresh, Fruity & Tropical

2. Sauvignon Blanc/Carmenère "Maule Valley" 2015 (Chile) ABV 12.5%

Citrus and tropical aromas along with subtle mineral notes from the 90% Sauvignon Blanc intermingle attractively with the herbal notes and soft spicy aromas from the 10% red grape Carmenere. Beautifully balanced with a fruity finish.

£24

4. Chardonnay 'Galetis' 2013 (France) ABV 12.5%

Aromas of melon, vanilla and hints of exotic durian fruit combined with flavours of ripe apricots & light oak. A very interesting style of Chardonnay.

£24.50

18. Viognier, Château de Campuget, Vin de Pays du Gard (France) ABV 13% 2016

An elegant Viognier from the Bouche du Rhône, near Nîmes with hints of orange marmalade, apricot, pear and honeysuckle. Ripe with tropical fruits, this is precise, crisp and balanced on the palate with a roundness of generously structured fruit and a long, elegant finish. This wine is perfect to drink now!

£38

9. Sauvignon Blanc “Moko Black” 2014 (New Zealand)

ABV 12.5%

The full-face Moko, featured on the label, was a mark of distinction for Maori men. Zesty citrus with white stone fruits. Lush with hints of gooseberry. This wine has a wonderful balance, soft texture and a clean, refreshing finish.

£27

10. “Guindalera”, Moscatel de Alexandria, Calvente 2013 (Spain)

ABV 13%

Wine Exclusive to The Mermaid

On the nose with peach, grapefruit, pineapple and Orange Blossom. On the palate is elegant, fresh and balanced with hints of Peach and Pineapple.

One of the few Spanish wines to be included in the prestigious guide “1001 Wines to try before you Die”. An exceptional dry white Muscat from vines up to 120 years old, nestling in the hamlet of La Guindalera. The grapes are hand-picked and brought down from the Granada mountains by mule. The secret is in the vines, which at 3500ft bake in the sun during the day, the temperature dropping dramatically at night. This means that the grapes preserve their natural acidity and brightness of flavours.

£33.70

The Sweet Tooth

7. Riesling Kabinett "Kreuznacher Kronenberg" 2012
*(Germany) ABV 9%

Produced in Nahe, a small wine growing region alongside the Rhine from 100% Reising vines which cling to steep volcanic slopes dotted along the river. Served from an elegant blue bottle cascades a bouquet of summer flowers, wonderful for the sweeter tooth.

£32

£26

45. *Cabernet Franc “Trapiche” 2013 (Argentina) ABV 14%

This full bodied powerful fruity wine is a taste to experience. Strong aromas of black fruits and red bell pepper with spicy notes. With soft tannins and a long lasting finish, this wine is beautifully balanced. In 1883, Trapiche was the first winery in Argentina with a train station to allow wine barrels to be easily loaded for quick distribution to the global market.
£28

53. *Syrah Gran Reserva, Vina Echeverria, Aconcagua 2014 (Chile) ABV 14.5%

A bold wine with a dark chocolate and cigar box character. Extremely smooth and silky. A very elegant & mature wine with hints of mint & coffee. An incredible wine, you will not be disappointed.

£30

99. *Corbières, ‘Chateau Haut Gléon’ 2009 (France) ABV 14%

The perfect wine to accompany steak. This wine, set in the heart of the Corbières region, Château Haut Gléon is a deep garnet red. Hosting an intense, complex bouquet with black fruit, mild spices and roasted coffee bean hints. Full and rounded on the palate with mellow tannins. A long, fresh finish. This red Corbières is made with Syrah, Grenache and Carignan grapes.

£55

43. Cahors Malbec “Château Croze de Pys” 2014 (France) ABV 12.5%

A beautiful red colour with a violet glow. Powerful and pure on the nose with lots of black fruit and rich wood flavours. Solid, well-structured wine in the mouth, full and spicy. The wood rip gives the wine the right softness. Defiantly holds up the ‘Cahors’ reputation!

£36

56. Borsao, Campo de Borja, Aragon 2008 (Spain) ABV 14.5%

A fantastic wine with a deep cherry colour, intense and vivid. It possesses a powerful nose of ripe red fruits and hints of new oak. Full bodied and richly flavoured, very well balanced with a persistent long spicy finish. Robert Parker in Wine Advocate wrote: “Bodegas Borsao has long been known for its high quality, value-priced wines and the current releases are no exception”.

£55

26. Grand Merlot dal Pic, Collavini 2011 (Italy) ABV 13.5%

A Merlot to stand above all others! This complex deep ruby wine hosts intense concentrated fragrances of forest fruits, spices and liquorice. A rich, fruit-led weave on the palate fuses with the warmth and softness of a great wine. Velvety tannins enhance and support the persistence of the after-aroma.

£87

30. Pomerol ‘Chateau Beauregard’ 2013 (France) ABV 13.5%

Wine Exclusive to The Mermaid

Pomerol is regarded as one of the top five wines in the world. A very bold but silky wine with intense black fruits on the nose with a long-lasting finish accompanied by a hint of dryness. An exceptional wine hosts a complexity of leather and spice with finely edged tannin.

Perfectly balanced that will certainly live up to expectations.

£138

Fruity & Juicy

21. Malbec “Sierra Los Andes” 2015 (Mendoza, Argentina)

ABV 14%

On the nose, it shows intense spicy and sweet aromas together with red fruit notes and floral violet hints. With a soft, velvety and very well balanced fresh finish. Beautiful with red meats or pasta.

£23

40. Primitivo Di Manduria 2013 (Italy) ABV 14%

A wonderfully balanced red, with poise and refinement despite its full-bodied style. Aged in French and American barrels for six months. It has an intense bouquet of dark berry fruits, with blackcurrants, blackberries and black cherries bursting through on the palate. Perfect with lamb and game with rich sauces.

£35

44. Petite Sirah “Lot 96”, Foppiano Vineyards, Russian River Valley, Sonoma County 2014 (California, USA) ABV 14.5%

A grape also known as Durif (in Australia). Deeply coloured shades of red and purple. Hosting notes of blackberry, black cherry and black pepper with a deep vivacious feel. Soft tannin and a very juicy, long finish.

£40

Wine Exclusive to The Mermaid

A silky smooth wine with hints of blackberries, raspberries and stone fruit, from the Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot grape. The strength of the wine effortlessly compliments charcuterie, duck, red meats and is also great with strong cheeses.

60. Pinotage “Barista” 2014 South Africa ABV 13%

A burst of intense rich coffee and chocolate aromas with ripe nuances of mulberry, plum & Maraschino cherries. Winemaker Bertus Fourie has been given the nickname ‘Starbucks’ after his pursuit in creating the world’s first Coffee Pinotage. He has concentrated on drawing out the coffee like aromas by toasting French oak at different temperatures to yield unique aromatics in the oak, obtaining what he calls, a specific toasting ‘profile’.

£32

52. Rioja Reserva “Ondarre” 2010 (Spain) ABV 14%

Bright ruby-red in colour, a gentle sweet cherry & raspberry flavour with hints of cedar oak & minerals. Finishes with a bright, tangy edge, soft tannins and a hint of zesty white pepper.

£35

46. Grand Malbec “Piattelli” 2014 (Argentina) ABV 14.5%

A rich and fragrant wine which represents the best of their crop. An intense red with aromas of strong black fruits, vanilla oak, and a touch of smoke. These aromas are transferred on the palate to give the wine superb structure with a full body that doesn’t disappoint. A soft fruit-forward flavour leads to a strong and well balanced finish. You will be left wanting more.

£47

48. *Madiran 'Château Fitére' 2010 (France) ABV 14%

Carries an abundance of depth and complexity with great concentration. The 2010 impresses with the intensity of the bouquet, and the immense ageing potential. The combination of ripe red fruits, gunflint, and smoky notes creates a lovely balance. To the palate it reveals a very chewy texture along with pleasant freshness supported by well-controlled, strong, wooded tannins.
£52

27. *The Butler Blend, Single Vineyard Cuvee 2012 (California, USA) ABV 15%

This biodynamic expression of the unique Butler Ranch is a Rhone style-based blend. Leading with deep, dark blackberry and mulberry aromas, a touch of leather, smoke and aged cedar. Fantastically complex but not challenging. The palate hosts rich blackberry jam, briar fruits & black pepper all concluding with a velvety-smooth long finish.
£65

29. *Chateau Musar 2000 (Lebanon) ABV 14%

In character, the wine is dense, richly-textured, with intense 'baked fruit' flavours of plums, damsons, cranberries, fig and dates.

The Hochar family produce this wonderful wine from their winery in Ghazir, 15 miles north of the capital, Beirut. Serge Hochar the founder has two sons, Gaston and Marc. Gaston manages the day to day running of the winery - Marc, its commercial aspects. Marc explains "My brother looks after the liquid. I look after the liquidity" The Musar grapes are grown in the fertile, sunny Bekaa Valley at an altitude of 3000 ft. blessed with 300 days of sunshine a year. All the grapes are hand harvested by local Bedouins between August and October.

A stunning wine, called "Angel's Tears" by a Mermaid team member, is only released after a 7-year bottle maturation period.

Elegant & Delicate

22. *Pinot Noir "Esprit De Montaigu" 2015 (France) ABV 12.5%

£26

28. *Chorey-les-Beaune, Vieilles Vignes, Grand Vin De Bourgogne 2007 (France) ABV 13%

Rated as the best available Chorey-les-Beaune wine. Full of fresh black fruits and very well aged. On the palate the wine is rich, velvety and spicy with very subtle oak notes. Made from 100% classic Pinot Noir grape. Delivering power with finesse, silk and grace with wonderful depth, definitely a wine to be experienced.

£69

Mermaid Dessert Wines

Muscat de St-Jean-de Minervois 2012, Petit Grain (France) ABV 15%

Boasting the ripest bunch of raisined grapes squeezed into your glass from Languedoc-Roussillon! Deliciously honied and fruit, rather than sugar-sweet so not cloying - with a kick of lemony freshness.

125ml glass £7.60 / Bottle 37.5cl £22.50

Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc, Echeverría 2011 ABV 13.5%

Complex nose with clear overtones of mature peaches, apricots and honey, with a delicate background of botrytis. Rich, intense and full bodied, with a long and elegant finish where fruits and botrytis express their identity in full harmony.

125ml glass £11.50 / Bottle 37.5cl £33

Quady Muscat "Elysium" 2015 (California) ABV 15%

Elysium is Greek for 'Perfect Bliss', so fitting for this excellent wine. Virtually black in colour with intense rose aroma. This wine can stand up to chocolate dishes or is wonderful drizzled over ice cream.

125ml glass £11.80 / Bottle 37.5cl £35

Tokaj, Noble Late Harvest, Katinka (Hungary) 2013 ABV 12%

Light golden straw colour, medium bodied, reflecting its 12 months in barriques with appealing vanilla and caramel notes. Lightly sweet showing dried orange, tobacco and white chocolate on a light spicy background. Perfect balance of complexity & elegance.

125ml glass £11 / Bottle £31

Sauternes, Grand Vin de Bordeaux, Dulong Reserve (France) ABV 13%

The Dulong family have been hand-harvesting their grapes since 1873. This luscious dessert wine has an explosion of crystallised mandarin, apricot jam and citrus. A honey nose, rich and smooth.

125ml glass £11.50 / Bottle 50cl £33

Quady Muscat "Deviation" 2015 (California) ABV 15%

A dessert wine that stands above all others. This Orange Muscat is infused with Rose Geranium & Damiana which was first used by the Mayans for its aphrodisiac properties. The herbs are steeped in the wine for seven days then matured for 1 year before release, giving the wine a beautiful aromatic essence.

This dessert wine is truly unique and delivers impact with every taste. Its complex fusion-style of aromatic qualities and tastes offer glorious surprises at every turn. For all dessert wine lovers, you must try!

125ml glass £16.50 / Bottle 37.5cl £48

Champagne

Champagne Moutard Brut, Grande Cuvée (France) ABV 12%
